20 REMEMBER NOW THY CREATOR.

NOTE.—A very choice number, appropriate for Children's Day, for Memorial Day and for funerals. It should not be sung in strict time, but varied in movement as the sense of the words demands. The phrasing should be carefully studied. In the above ment in 12 | 8 time the tenor has the melody and should be prominent.

The Junior Choir No. 2

A New Book for Children's or Beginners' Choirs

Edited by Ira B. Wilson.

"The Junior Choir No. 1" has proven so widely popular and so valuable that we have been obliged to provide a successor to supply the returning wants of those who have already used No. 1. In No. 2 will be found a splendid collection of songs and short anthems, all of which can be sung by a two-part chorus, whether this two-part chorus is made up of children or grown folks. Junior Choir No. 2 is somewhat better adapted to children's choirs than No. 1. "The Junior Choir No. 2" is beautifully and durably printed and bound. Price, 30 cents per copy, $3.50 a dozen, post-paid; $3.00 a dozen, by express, not prepaid.

The Men's Choir

Edited by E. S. Lorenz

A Book of Elaborate Songs and Anthems for Male Voices

This new book is far from being a collection of gospel songs arranged for male voices. We recommend this book to churches which have only a men's choir and desire something dignified and churchly for the formal services of the church; also for mixed choirs whose men's department is strong enough and well trained enough to sing something without the ladies' assistance equal in strength and character to what the mixed choir sings. "The Men's Choir" contains 38 selections in its 64 pages of regular anthem book size. Prices: 30 cents per copy, $3.50 per dozen, post-paid; $3.00 per dozen by express collect.

The Women's Choir

A Book of Elaborate Songs and Anthems for Women's Voices

For years we have received letters from unfortunate inquirers who have reported that the number of men in their church had dwindled till it had become entirely a women's choir. "The Women's Choir" is the result of our determination to provide something churchly, scholarly, and satisfactory. This book will also be valuable to many mixed choirs, in that it will enable them to provide occasionally something out of the routine in the shape of an anthem for ladies only without lowering in any sense the standard of music usually used. In this 64 page book will be found 21 selections. Prices: 30 cents per copy, $3.50 per dozen, postpaid; $3.00 per dozen, by express, transportation charges borne by purchaser.
